- You will inform and update me fully of any characteristics of the dog(s) which needs to be known for safe handling and their welfare. Should any dog(s) become aggressive, or I consider dangerous, I have the right to terminate services with immediate effect and will coordinate relocation of your dog(s). You will not be entitled to any refunds, and you will pay for any additional kennel fees incurred
- Any wrongful or misleading information given by you about your dog(s) behaviour or their health will constitute a breach of terms and be grounds for instant termination of services. I will coordinate relocation and treatment of your dog(s) and you will not be entitled to any refunds and will pay any additional kennel or veterinary fees incurred
- You undertake to reimburse all costs for veterinary services and any damage caused by your dog(s)
- In an emergency I will endeavour to refer your dog(s) to their named vet for advice or treatment. If this is not practicable or possible, I will refer to my nominated/or nearest practice. You undertake to reimburse all expenses incurred under this clause
- You will supply an emergency contact who is able to take care of your dog in an emergency and who can be trusted to make decisions about veterinary services for your dog
- I will inform you of any incident or concern which I notice about your dog(s) welfare or behaviour
- I will keep the dog(s) on a lead whenever out of the house, unless explicit permission has been given. I will take care so far as is practicable that the dog is not a nuisance or danger to any person, other animals, or itself
- You will ensure there is straight forward access to collect and return the dog(s) from the agreed address at the agreed dates or give a key to the place where the dog(s) is kept. If I
